

LIFT

日本語版

Life, Information, Fun, Times

July 6, 1885 – French microbiologist, Louis Pasteur, administered the first successful rabies vaccine to a nine-year old boy bitten by a rabid dog.

July 7, 1989 – Warner Brothers copyright registered Batman, a movie based on a popular cartoon character. The movie was directed by Tim Burton and boasted a stellar cast.

*'Oh summer,
what power you have to make us suffer and like it'*

Russel Baker

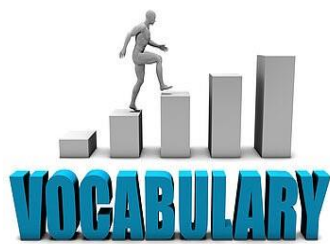

July 22, 1873 – Louis Pasteur received a patent for the manufacturing of beer and treatment of yeast, which would later influence his discovery of pasteurization.

'Heat' in the languages of our teachers
1	gwres	Welsh	6	Calor	Portuguese
2	Calor	Spanish	7	Harara	Arabic
3	Căldură	Romanian	8	Chaleur	French
4	Meleg	Hungarian	9	sıcaklık	Turkish
5	Calore	Italian	10	Zhara	Russian

July 30, 1933 – The Monopoly board game was copyright registered, turning its inventor, Charles Darrow, into the first millionaire game designer after he sold his patent to Parker Brothers.

can't take the heat

To be unable to cope with the pressure of a situation

If you can't take the heat from the angry customers, then you shouldn't be working in customer service.

in the heat of (something)

During a time of extreme agitation or emotion

In the heat of the moment, I completely forgot to ask my question.

more heat than light

more emotion than actual information

I bet her presentation creates more heat than light with the fancy terms she likes to use.

dead heat

A competition where the opponents are even

The two companies are in a dead heat to get a new product on the market.

July events

July 11-13: World Bodypainting Festival, Klagenfurt, Austria

This annual festival and competition highlights an art form as old as humans: bodypainting! Participants from around the world descend upon Klagenfurt, Austria to compete in 12 categories that include airbrushing and special effects.

July 11-15: Naadam, Mongolia

This traditional Mongolian festival celebrates the three "manly" games: wrestling, horse racing, and archery. In recent years, the latter two have been opened up to women. The festivities take place across the entire country and locals are always in good spirits.

July 12 - Darwin Beer Can Regatta

This iconic annual family fun event was established in 1974 as a small water festival and it has since been encouraging participants to use their imagination and design a vessel from cans as well as plastic bottles or milk cartons, as long as it floats. The contestants then race their homemade floats in this celebration of creativity and inventive recycling.

Panafest, Ghana Cape Coast

This Pan-African Festival occurs every two years in Ghana's Cape Coast. Having originated in 1992, the festival aims to enhance the unity among the continent's inhabitants and always promises to be a profound experience.

Hottest places

52 C° average, 57 C° record
Death Valley,
Eastern California

49 C° average, 58 C° record
El-Azizia, Libya

46 C° Dallol
Ethiopia

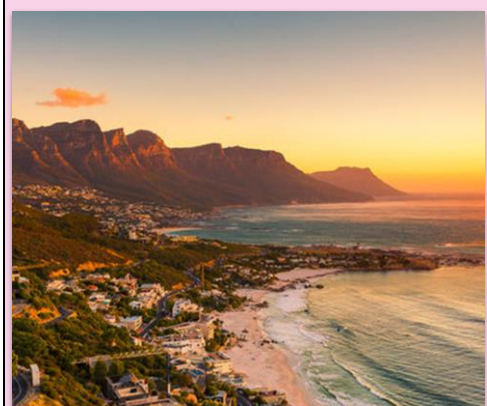

40 C° average, 53 C° record
Wadi Halfa Sudan

70 C° record
Lut Desert, Iran

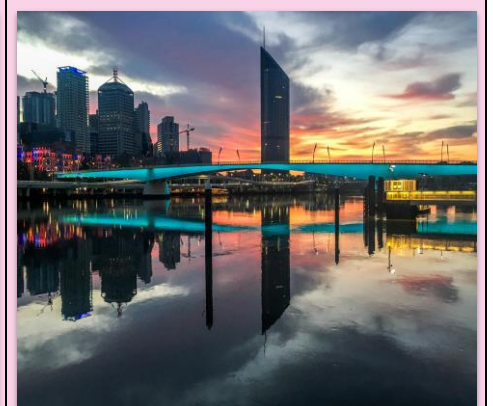

54 C° record
Tirat Zvi, Israel

43 C° record
Cape Town, South Africa

38 C° average
Bangkok, Thailand

68 C° record
Queensland, Australia

Featuring a fictional Greek island and an ensemble cast, this musical romantic comedy is based on Catherine Johnson's 1999 book.

The movie is based on ABBA songs, with additional songs composed by ABBA member, Benny Andersen, especially for this production.

The plot follows a young bride determined to find out who her father is before she starts her own family. To this end, she invites all 3 possible men to her wedding, without mentioning this to her mother!

July Julienné Carrot Salad

Bon Appétit

This simple, refreshing salad comes together in only 3 steps: you prepare 450 gr of carrot by peeling them and cutting them into thin matchsticks. Then, in a bowl you toss them with 3 tablespoons of extra-virgin olive oil, 2 tablespoons of lemon juice, 1 grated clove of garlic, 1/2 of a teaspoon of cumin seeds, 1/2 of a teaspoon of coriander seeds, a pinch of ground Cayenne and salt and pepper to taste until well coated. Leave it to marinate for 10 to 15 minutes. Adjust seasoning before serving and sprinkle with preserved lemon and garnish with mint leaves.